GLADIOLUS BULBS

1934 WHOLESALE LISTING

PRICES QUOTED ARE F. O. B. PORTLAND, ORE.

Oregon Nurseryman's License No. 837

OUR STOCK

Our bulbs are grown on good soil, under overhead irrigation system, treated before planting, and have State, field and storage inspection. All forcing stocks are raised from small bulbs, planted and dug early, and are healthy and very well matured. All bulblet stock is washed clean and winnowed, kept in cool temperature, and comes to you in proper condition to plant. All stocks are new, free from dirt, gravel, etc.

Our Guarantee

We use the greatest of care in the growing and handling of our bulbs and guarantee all stock true to name, free from disease, and up to the size ordered. We will not be responsible for the result of the crop or conditions beyond our control; bulblet stock is not guaranteed to germinate freely, as some bulblets germinate very good, while others require more attention.

Our Terms

Net cash with order, or 20 per cent will book your order for future date, then shipment is made C. O. D. for the balance. Shipments will be made by Express, unless otherwise stated. Protected Freight shipments to principle Eastern and Southeast points at $3.75 per hundred pounds.

REGALE LILY BULBS AND SEED

The Regale Lilly is not yet as well known as other Lilies, but is coming into use more each year by Florists for outside planting. Prices are now within reach of every one, and Florists should have a few hundred growing outside. Blooms are large, waxy white with canary yellow throat and very fragrant. Sizes are inches in circumference except seedlings which are listed in diameter. Priced F.O.B. Portland, Oregon. Plant Bulbs from Nov. 1st to April 1st, and Seeds in March or April.
